A brave new world is emerging. Dev is merging with Ops. DevOps is merging with Security. Artists are merging with coders. Distributed workflows are merging with centralized ones. So get ready to merge with your future.

Join your peers, partners, developers, executives and thought leaders for three days of breakthrough breakout sessions, networking, and lively discussions with luminaries from the world's most innovative companies.

Come hear about our vision and you'll "Emerge with Greatness," inspired to do even more amazing things.

We look forward to seeing you in April!

Kind regards,

Julia Angell
Director of Engagement Marketing
